3.0	Inclusion and Equalities
3.1	C. Nellaney distributed a draft copy of Trinity High Schools anti-bullying policy. Policy outlined the following points: ➢ Trinity High School's Values ➢ Role of our Young People ➢ Roll of Classroom Teachers ➢ Role of PT Pupil Support and DHT ➢ The difference between conflict and bullying behaviours ➢ Procedures for reporting and recording bullying behaviours ➢ Possible actions the school may take. C. Nellaney noted that to support with the development of this policy that Pupil Support staff completed a CLPL session led by Respectme- Scotland's Anti-Bullying Service and have liaised with other schools who have been noted by HMIE and/ or the Local Authority as having demonstrated good practice in the area of anti- bullying. Positive feedback regarding simplicity of document and the fact that it discusses bullying behaviours rather than labelling pupils as bullies. Discussion took place regarding reluctance of Young People to report bullying behaviours to adults.
